

Celebrity Jewelry Trends

It's always fun to see what the celebrities wear to the awards events.

Keeping an eye on celebrity jewelry is an excellent way to see what the current jewelry trends are as well as what is to come in the next seasons. Celebrities always have access to the newest designs. When a piece is worn by a celebrity, you are never surprised to see it become a popular style very quickly.

At the Prime Time Emmy Awards this weekend, oversize earrings were the most prominent jewelry trend. Large rings and bib necklaces were also very popular.

Another trend I found interesting is that gold tone fashion jewelry is so very popular once again.

Below are the Latasia versions of all of these jewelry styles. Latasia is ALWAYS fashion forward. We launched our new collection with all of these trends before the celebrities were wearing them on the red carpet.

Have fun wearing your jewelry. Remember that your jewelry is an expression of who you are. Latasia has a wide selection of different jewelry that will make you feel special. There is always something for everyone. Take a look at our catalogs on line and host a party with your friends. You could be wearing the most popular celebrity styles for FREE!